

Dear members and guests,

JCI Copenhagen International invites you to our next monthly meeting:

Business and Networking

18 March 2010

The meeting's topic will be how we can use each other and the JCI network to our advantage, especially in business view. This will be connected to new initiatives from the national Business group, which wants to increase attention in JCI Denmark for business. You will receive a mail from Silvia with more details about these initiatives. Also feel free to let us know if you have business-related topics you also would like to take up at the meeting.

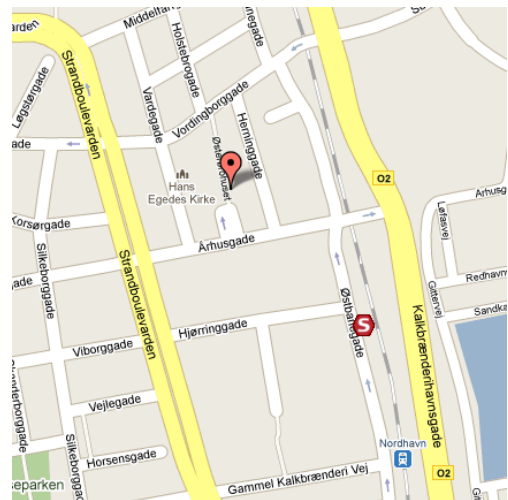

The vice president of our JCI region will also be visiting us, and tell us about JCI, the new vision, and the projects other JCI's are doing around the world. He probably also won't mind answering questions about regional activities ☺

Finally the meeting will give time for networking and some ice-breaking with each other, something that not always makes it really onto the agenda!
